

MORNINGTON PENINSULA INTERNATIONAL PINOT NOIR CELEBRATION

28 + 29
January
2011

Mornington Peninsula International Pinot Noir Celebration

The fifth biennial celebration will be held on 28 & 29 January 2011

Mornington Peninsula Vignerons invite Pinot Noir enthusiasts to celebrate the magic of this cool climate variety with a global perspective.

Pinot Noir from around the world is tasted alongside national and international wine media and producers from the US, France, New Zealand and Australia, during two days of serious fun! Guest producers will include Domaine de Montille from France, and other producers from the US, New Zealand and Australia.

The 2011 keynote speaker will be Allen Meadows, burghound.com. Allen Meadows was a finance executive for 21 years, holding a variety of positions, including stints as the senior vice-president and director of corporate development for Great Western Financial. In 1999 he elected to retire to author a book on the subject of Burgundy but a year later decided to found Burghound.com, a quarterly review that is devoted exclusively to the coverage of Burgundy/Pinot Noir with bi-annual coverage of Champagnes/Sparklers. Burghound.com was the first of its kind to offer specialized, and more importantly, exhaustive coverage of a specific wine region. The first Issue was released in January of 2001 and there are now subscribers in more than 50 countries and nearly all 50 states. Meadows spends over four months a year in Burgundy and visits more than 300 domaines during that time.
